

How Democracy can be established in the country?

Legislatures, Judiciary and Executives (Police and Bureaucracy) are the pillars of our democracy. In present scenario, to make the democracy stronger, the following reforms should be made.

1. Political Reforms:-

1. Election of Prime Minister (PM) and Chief Minister (CM) should be directly by the public.
2. Pension of Member of Parliament (M.P.) and Member of Legislative Assembly (M.L.A.) should be equal to their salary and should not have any other source of income.
3. If a person (self, spouse and minor children) is having any movable and immovable property, that should be donated to the country.

(By these provisions, entry will be only for those politicians who really wish to serve the Nation.)

2. Judiciary Reforms:-

1. In every case a time limit should be fixed on the basis of the nature of the case. No case in any court should take more than 6 months or 6 hearings whichever is earlier.
2. There should be a bench of a High court in every five districts and a bench of a Supreme Court in every five states.
3. All old/pending cases should be closed.

3. Police Reforms:-

1. Working hours should be 28 in a week. At present it is 24x7 which affects their health very badly.
2. Salary should be double.
3. If a person is having stomach outside his belt, he should resign himself. (A reasonable time i.e. 6-12 months should be allowed to keep them physically fit).

Bureaucracy:- It is said that bureaucracy is not having its back bone. When all the above three systems (i.e. political, judiciary and police) are in place, automatically this system will also function properly (can be molded as desired) and democracy will be stronger.

If you wish to build our country Hindustan a Heaven, it is essential to have strong pillars of democracy and that is possible by the above reforms.
