

How life of an ordinary person can be prosperous?

When the following are available to every citizen of the country easily:-

1. Food should be pure, clean, nutritious and to the full for a person.
2. Every person should have at least two pairs of clothing according to weather.
3. Every person should have one room per person. Till this arrangement is made, 50-100 houses should be built in every village. By this action population of cities will reduce to a half in a decade or so and pollution will also reduce drastically in the cities.
4. Education and health services should be equal with resources and that too free.
5. Food for one time in a day should be free. For this purpose women and unemployed youth in cities should get Rs. 3000.00 pm and in villages Rs. 2000.00 pm.
6. For security, every person should get a minimum pension or an unemployment allowance of Rs. 5000 p.m.
7. Water of river should be made available free for drinking.
8. Electricity for one bulb, one fan and one fridge should be made available free.
9. Cycle should ply within 5 km. and every family should have at least one cycle. Battery and electricity operated vehicles should ply to control pollution.

If you wish to build our country Hindustan a Heaven, it is essential that every citizen of the country should get food, clothing, housing, education, health services, security, water, electricity and transport easily as mentioned above.
