

How a farmer can be stronger and prosperous in our country?

When the following provisions are made: -

1. Guarantee for the purchase of crops should be provided.
2. Guarantee of a reasonable price within a reasonable time should be provided.
3. Guarantee of compensation in case of loss of crop should be provided.
4. All existing loans should be waived off.
5. Fresh loans @ 0.01% p.a. Interest should be made available easily.
6. Water of river for irrigation should be made available free.
7. Organic fertilizer should be made available free by managing waste management all over the country.
8. Hilly farming, plains farming and ocean farming should be encouraged and awareness should be created in this respect. Cooperatives should be encouraged in connection with the above.
9. For a farmer everything should be managed and done till this slogan “Jai Kisan Jai Kisan” becomes a reality.

If you wish to build our country Hindustan a Heaven, it is essential that a farmer (back bone of the body of the country) should be stronger and prosperous.
