

Acts which can make the countrymen prosperous?

When the following provisions are made:-

1. Education and health services should be equal with resources and that too free.
2. Food for one time in a day should be free. For this purpose women and unemployed youth should get Rs. 3000.00 per month in cities and Rs. 2000.00 pm in villages.
3. Distribution of money in the states should be on the basis of the population of the state only.
4. Share of money in assets and profits of the country (which is under the earth) should be distributed equally amongst the citizens of the country by which Gantantra (republic) can be established.
5. Money of the social, charitable and religious organizations belongs to the public and should be spent for the public only.
6. Immovable property should be registered in the name of women only by whom problem of feticide/dowry and other social evils will reduce drastically. Women will get a respect in the society and problem related to the divorce (Talak, Talak, Talak) and polygamy in Muslims will reduce drastically.
7. Ban on speculative trading in shares will help in reduction in tendency towards gambling.
8. To stop the tendency of intoxication, awareness should be created that intoxication is harmful for body, mind and intellect. It can be stopped with the help of Ante Pooja (Inner worship) and the method of Ante Pooja can be learnt from Purn Guru Ji.
9. Coins should be in circulation instead of currency notes to reduce problem related to prostitution, begging, unsocial acts, sale purchase of children and girls, trade of human organs / dealing with professional blood donors etc. Anyone keeping cash more than Rs. 10000 in coins should be treated as a traitor.

If you wish to build our country Hindustan a Heaven, it is essential that the above acts should be done for the citizens of the country.
